Khrushchev's U.S. Visit Confined to Manhattan Island

Restrictions Placed on Other Red Leaders

Security Problem Caused by Nikita's Hostile Talk Cited

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) —The United States notified the Soviet Union today that Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev during his visit to New York must not travel off Manhattan Island.

In a memorandum delivered to the Soviet U. N. delegation, the United States requested that arrangements be made for the Soviet leader to reside as near as possible to U. N. headquarters and to limit his movements to those required by his official mission as head of the Soviet delegation to the United Nations.

Other Reds Restricted
U. S. sources said similar restrictions were being placed on Hungarian Communist party chief Janos Kadar and Mehmet Shehu, premier of Albania.

The U. S. memorandum said the restrictions were being imposed in order to provide adequate security for the Communist leaders.

The memorandum added: "The question of assuring the necessary security for Mr. Khrushchev and the Soviet delegation has, of course, been complicated by the hostile public statements of the head of the Soviet government and by the destruction of an American plane over international waters by Soviet action and the continued illegal detention of two American fliers."

Demanding Crewman's Release

This was a reference to the RB47 reconnaissance plane which the Soviet Union claims was shot down over Soviet territory July 1. The United States avers the aircraft was over international waters and has demanded the release of the two surviving crew members, a demand the Soviet Union thus far has rejected.

The memorandum requested the Soviet delegation to notify the U. S. government at the earliest possible moment the exact time of Khrushchev's arrival, his place of residence, length of stay, and time and method of departure.

Will Appeal To Public

State Department officials indicated that an appeal would be made to the public to "act in a dignified and restrained fashion, in regard to the Communist visitors."

Khrushchev, with other Communist leaders, is aboard the Soviet liner Balika at sea heading for New York. He is due in New York Sept. 19, the day before the U. N. Assembly convenes.

Restriction to Manhattan Island would mean Khrushchev would be unable to use the Soviet Union's mansion at Glen Cove, Long Island.

4 Men Sentenced By Judge Sharp

LISBON — Three East Liverpool men and one Berlin Center man were sentenced Friday afternoon by Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp after their requests for probation were denied by the court. Two other East Liverpool men were granted five year's probation.

Donald L. Bailey, 19, of East Liverpool and Raymond Payton, 21, of Youngstown, formerly of East Liverpool, were each sentenced to one to 15 years in the Ohio State Reformatory. Daniel Germanovich, 19, of East Liverpool received probation.

All had pleaded guilty to the April 13 burglary of the Stayton Service Station, on the Salem-Lisbon Rd. Past records of Bailey and Payton prompted the court's refusal of probation.

Elmer Bahman of East Liverpool and Robert Trimm of Berlin Center were each sentenced to one to three years in the Ohio State Penitentiary on charges of non-support of their minor children.

Billy Elins of East Liverpool was granted five years' probation on a similar charge.

All were indicted by the recalled April Grand Jury and pleaded guilty at arraignment day July 7.

Continues Plans to Form New Government

Kasavubu Firm on Lumumba Ouster

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Embattled President Joseph Kasavubu stood firm today in his determination to end the rule of Premier Patrice Lumumba and rid the Congo of Communist influences.

Informants close to Kasavubu said he is going ahead with his announced plan to form a new government with the Senate's moderate president, Joseph Ileo, as premier.

Calls For General Strike

(Brussels Radio reported that the pro-Kasavubu Abako party has circulated leaflets in the Leopoldville area calling for a general strike late today by the 400,000 inhabitants against Lumumba's regime.)

The president has remained behind the closely guarded doors of his residence on the outskirts of Leopoldville since his broadcast Monday night announcing the firing of Lumumba as premier.

Lumumba quickly countered by declaring Kasavubu fired, but the Congo Parliament voided both dismissals and said both men should keep their jobs. Confidantes of Kasavubu said the president was not impressed by the apparent support Lumumba has received in both houses of Parliament the past two days.

Intimidated By Lumumba

He considers that the members of the Senate and House were intimidated by Lumumba and by the troops who wandered about the chambers of Parliament with their submachineguns during both debates.

Kasavubu said Friday night the unfavorable votes in Parliament could not annul the president's ouster of Lumumba. He said the premier was fired and remains fired.

Under the fundamental law now governing the Congo, the president said in a communique, Ileo

Dag Defends Seizure Of Congo Installations

UNITED NATIONS (AP) — Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld defended before the U.N. Security Council early today the seizure of Congo airports and Leopoldville Radio by U.N. forces.

Under fire from the Communist bloc, he put the issue squarely up to the 11-nation council for "its consideration and instruction."

After a session that lasted into the early hours, the council adjourned until late today to debate actions of the U.N. peace force trying to keep order in the turbulent African nation.

Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba has called on the 16,000 U.N. troops to get out of the Congo unless they give back the airports and radio station.

Hammarskjöld and Yugoslav delegate Dobrovic Vidic clashed over the wisdom of letting the U.N. control the installations.

Before they spoke, the council turned down a Soviet proposal that it accept an invitation from Lumumba to hold an immediate special meeting in Leopoldville to study the Congo situation first-hand.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov said the Soviet Union would fly the delegates there if they adopted his resolution.

But delegates voted it down 6-3. Only Poland and Ceylon joined the Soviet Union in voting for it. Ecuador and Tunisia abstained.

Hammarskjöld told the council U.N. representatives in the Congo acted wisely in seizing control of the radio station and the airports Monday night when President Joseph Kasavubu and Premier Lumumba tried to fire each other.

The secretary general said they instituted the emergency measures without consulting either him or any Congo authorities—but he endorsed what they had done and took full responsibility for it.

Their action, he said, prevented the people from being "worked up by a radio war" between Kasavubu and Lumumba, and retained the airports for use of the U.N. force in its job of keeping order and protecting lives.

Hub Cap Thief Leaves Shoe Behind

Two hubcaps were reported stolen from a car parked at Hanna's Landing at Guilford Lake late Friday night.

Three youths are believed to be involved. The owner's shouts caused the thieves to leave in haste and, as a result, one youth lost his left shoe. It has been turned over to the sheriff's office.

A series of hubcap incidents have occurred at the lake recently.

Dayton Man Held In Canton Bank Holdup

FBI, Detectives Nab Suspect In Hotel, Recover $49,000

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Someone knocked on the door at Harry E. Highfill's room in the Dayton Biltmore Hotel Friday.

"Who's there?" asked Highfill. "Room service," came the reply.

Highfill opened the door and got the surprise of his life.

Into the room stormed FBI agents and detectives. They pinned Highfill against the wall and started a search of the premises.

Find Money In Suitcase

Under the bed they found a suitcase filled with money and a .22 caliber nine-shot pistol.

They hustled Highfill off before a U.S. commissioner and charged him with the $53,566 robbery of a Canton National Bank branch office last Wednesday.

FBI agents said almost $49,000 was in the suitcase. Highfill told them he had spent about $4,500 to buy a new car, a used car and to pay incidental expenses.

But after he was taken into custody, the 32-year-old Dayton native had to borrow cigarette money from FBI agents.

Held Under $50,000 Bond

He was ordered held to Federal District Court under $50,000 bond and locked up in Montgomery County Jail.

A statewide alert went out for Highfill after a Canton taxi driver identified him through descriptions as the man he let out of his cab about 15 blocks from the robbed bank.

The FBI then told Ohio's police agencies to watch for a two-tone blue 1951 Ford that Highfill was reported driving.

The car was spotted parked near the Biltmore Hotel here and agents came across Highfill's name on the hotel register. But he wasn't in his room so FBI agents and city detectives waited until he appeared and called for room service.

Then they caught him off guard in his bare feet, without a shirt and wearing just slacks.

Agents said the pistol found in his suitcase was believed to be the one used in the bank robbery.

The robber, clad in blue tweeds and a blue straw hat and with strips of adhesive over his face, took only five minutes to force six women tellers to load a shopping bag with money.

He made an easy escape from the bank's Wertz and West Tuscarawas St. branch since something went wrong with the burglar alarm and police were a bit late in getting a report of the holdup.

The FBI said Highfill will be questioned about a $4,500 robbery at a Cleveland Trust Co. branch office in Cleveland Aug. 30.

The 5-foot-5 sandy-haired suspect told agents he went to work as a salesman or promoter and as a part-time bartender after being discharged from military service in 1946. He lived in Dayton until last April and had a police record here only for traffic violations. His current address is in nearby Centerville.

E. Liverpool Girl Hurt In Collision

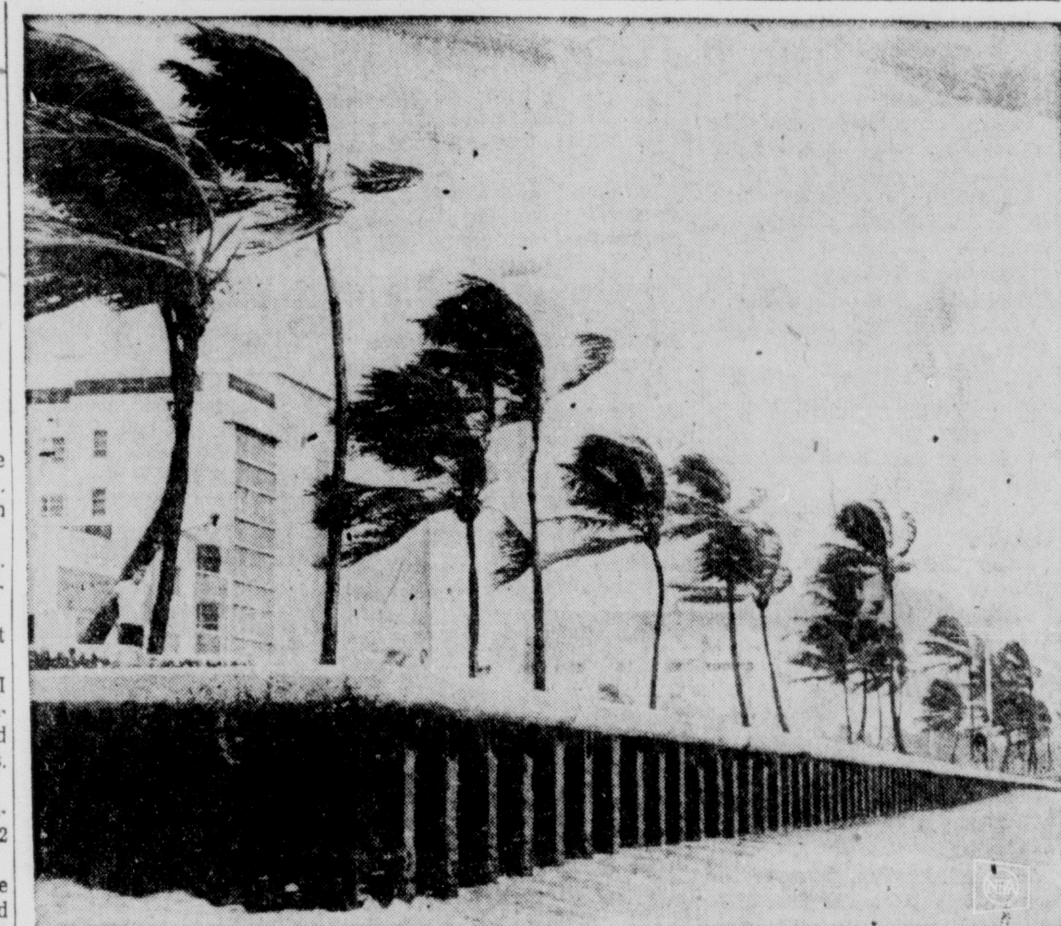

A 15-year-old East Liverpool girl was treated at East Liverpool City Hospital Friday afternoon for a bruised hip suffered in a two-car accident on Rt. 267, about two miles west of East Liverpool.

State Highway Patrolmen said the girl, Shirley McCullough of 707 W. 9th St., was a passenger in a car driven by James R. Thompson, 73, of 114 S. River Ave., Toronto, which pulled out of a side road into the path of a westbound car, driven by George R. Miller, 41, of Kelly Ave., East Liverpool. The mishap occurred at 4:55 p.m.

Thompson was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way.

Rail Strike Negotiations At Standstill

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Pennsylvania Railroad negotiators worked today on a reply to proposals of two unions as federal mediators and some 92,000 unemployed hoped for a sign that the impasse in the 10-day strike might be broken.

Federal Mediator Francis A. O'Neill Jr. acknowledged the impasse Friday night, asserting "We're in dead center. We're not progressing or moving back. We've just stalled."

O'Neill's appraisal came as the Transport Workers Union and the reply from the PRR on their latest proposals, terms of which have not been disclosed.

The PRR received the union proposals late Friday.

The number idled by the strike continued to rise. Some 72,000 of them are PRR employees, 15,000 in the TWU and 5,000 in the System Federation.

In addition, some 8,500 soft coal miners have been idled for lack of facilities to transport their product. Chrysler Corp. shut down its Newark, Del., automobile assembly plant Friday for the same reason, idling another 4,000.

It previously had furloughed 200 at its Twinsburg, Ohio plant.

N. American Air Defenses Tested

Secrecy Shrouds 'Sky Shield' Results

WASHINGTON (AP) — Screaming through skies cleared of all commercial planes, jet interceptors thundered destruction threats against bomber for six hours early today in the biggest test ever made of North American air defenses.

Then with dawn the warplanes of the United States and Canada began settling back at their bases, finished with their demonstration of might and a giant test of effectiveness.

There was no immediate evaluation of the results of the test, Exercise Sky Shield.

A brief communique issued by Gen. Laurence S. Kuter, chief of the North American Air Defense Command (NORAD), merely said that the six-hour operation had been carried on and completed at 7 a. m., EST.

Kuter's joint command, based at Colorado Springs, with deputies from all services of the United States and Canada, is responsible for defense of the two nations against attack by manned bombers.

During the six-hour interlude, all U.S. and Canadian commercial aviation was grounded while jet bombers and fighters roamed the air, picket ships at sea tracked with radar and missile launching crews went through the motions of sending their weapons aloft.

The communique said the entire NORAD command "was exercised under realistic conditions and lasting benefits would result."

That was the only official comment on this huge training operation.

The military, imposing as much secrecy as it could on an operation involving hundreds of warplanes, clamped top security on "Exercise Sky Shield."

Headquarters of the North American Air Defense (NORAD) Command at Colorado Springs and the Strategic Air Command (SAC) at Omaha, warned in advance that newsmen would be banned from all affected bases for reasons of security and the "touchy international situation."

This was in sharp contrast to the normal inclination of the Air Force to show the public as much as it can about its capabilities. It aroused speculation about the underlying reasons.

One apparent reason: The necessity for secrecy about exact routes and deployment of defending and attacking forces, or any information which would show

Keys Pounded By 135 m.p.h. Winds, Tides

Storm Continues To Buffet Miami; At Least One Dead

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane Donna, the killer storm which has left a trail of dead across the islands of the Atlantic, claimed its first Florida victim today.

The body of an unidentified white man was found at Tavernier, a small island south of here which was battered by the full force of Donna's sustained winds at 135 miles an hour.

The highway patrol had no specific information on how the man died but listed him as a storm casualty.

"That's the first one," said highway patrol Dispatcher C. J. Johnson. "I hope there aren't any more."

Florida Keys Pounded

The Florida Keys were raked Friday night and today by winds and tides which washed out bridge approaches, broke the main water line to Key West, piled seaweed three feet high across the overseas highway, scattered trailers at a tourist camp for half a mile, and ripped the roof from a school building in use as a refuge.

Earlier highway patrol reports that several people were injured on the keys could not be confirmed by the Red Cross at Miami. However, the Red Cross said there may be casualties still unreported.

Relief missions were headed southward from Miami and northward from Key West to the battered central islands of the chain of keys which curves southwestward from the mainland.

All On Way To Island

Doctors, medical supplies, field kitchens and food were on the way. The Navy planned to dispatch five helicopters to the scene as soon as the winds slackened.

The Coast Guard raced against time to remove more than 10 persons who wanted to flee Sanibel and Captiva Islands off the Lee County coast of southwest Florida.

Two helicopters from the St. Petersburg Coast Guard Station flew 80 persons to beaches near Fort Myers where school buses took them to shelters.

A sheriff's deputy said the remainder of about 305 persons had elected to stay on the islands and ride out the wind.

Beach Area Evacuated

Other beach areas on the southwest coast were evacuated. At Fort Myers shelters were opened at schools, the City Hall and the Court House.

Word of the night of horror on the exposed and low-lying Keys trickled out by highway patrol and amateur radio.

The Weather Bureau and police had begged the Keys residents to evacuate but many chose to take their chances.

Miami was buffeted all night long by winds near hurricane force. The heating continued this morning, felling trees and utility poles, knocking out electric power in many sections, flooding streets, breaking windows and destroying billboards.

The 104 foot Liberian freighter was caught by a wind gust of better than 7 miles an hour and tossed up on an island beach 20 miles southeast of Miami.

All 11 aboard were safe but the skipper complained it wasn't very nautical to have a motel on his port side and trees on his starboard. There was no immediate damage report.

Took Refuge In Shelter

Over 12,000 residents of low-lying areas took refuge in public shelters in South Florida. Two of the shelters—an armory at Homestead and a school building on the Keys—lost parts of their roofs to Donna but no evacuees were hurt.

Bids Sought to Supply Coal for Schools

Garrod Named Member of Fairfield-Waterford Board

George Garrod of RD 2, Columbiana, was named to fill a vacancy on the Fairfield-Waterford Board of Education when the board met Thursday night at the New Waterford School.

He succeeds Edward Kirk of the Columbiana-Signal Rd. who resigned recently to move to Arizona.

The board rejected the single bid received to provide coal for the school system and will readvertise for bids which will be accepted until 8 p.m. Oct. 13. Various amounts of stoker, mine run and egg coal are required.

A school policy was established forbidding seniors from taking part in any graduation activities unless they have fulfilled all the assignments necessary for graduation.

Joe Driscoll, executive head of the school system, was authorized to attend the third annual school transportation conference to be held in Worthington Oct. 5.

All board members also were authorized to attend the Ohio School Board Assn. convention in Columbus Nov. 11, and the two school principals were granted permission to go to the principals convention scheduled soon in Columbus.

Enrollment in the schools has been stabilized at 952 pupils, Driscoll reported. The figure is nine under last year's total. The decline is a result of the transfer of 52 students to Columbiana schools following a merger of a section of the Fairfield-Waterford area with the Columbiana system since last fall.

An education association of the Fairfield-Waterford District has been organized, and all employees in the school system are eligible to join. Purpose of the organization is to improve education in the district.

DIES IN 2-CAR CRASH

there's more to be seen...

Deep in the human heart is the desire for greater and wider vision. It prompted early man to climb the trees and to scale the peaks. Every year it lures thousands to the top of the Empire State Building. It inspired the telescope and microscope, and eventually radar.

Similar to this yearning for vision, yet sacred in its powerful prompting, has been man's spiritual quest. Although there is much natural evidence around us to prove there is a God, we want to understand His mind, His power and will... His heart!

No human inventions are needed here. In the Church established by Jesus Christ, in the Truth taught by Jesus Christ, in the Life inspired by Jesus Christ — each of us finds that wider vision his soul craves.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Better Take It Easy Boys

Vice President Nixon has promised not to do anything to stir up the religious issue in the 1960 presidential campaign.

President Eisenhower has pointed out that the issue should not be agitated, even though it exists.

Sen. Kennedy has asked that the issue be left out of discussion of campaign issues, because it is not a campaign issue.

These are proper positions. They can be defended.

Former President Truman, on the other hand, has taken an improper and indefensible position by blaming Vice President Nixon for "racial, religious and anti-union bigotry by way of the back door."

Sen. Henry M. Jackson, Democratic national chairman, has taken the same line by blaming Mr. Nixon for religious bigotry in the campaign.

These are serious accusations. They are as serious as if prominent Republicans had accused Sen. Kennedy of being personally guilty of everything reprehensible that has been done or might be done by his friends in the campaign.

Neither Mr. Kennedy nor Mr. Nixon can control all the people who are working for them. Many things will be said and done by Kennedy workers that the candidate, himself, would not have approved of if consulted. Many things will be said and done by Nixon workers that would not have been consented to by their candidate.

Mr. Nixon, of course, is in more danger of being accused of religious bigotry than Mr. Kennedy, because only Mr. Kennedy's religion is involved in the religious issue. This makes Mr. Nixon the target of a charge that is certain to be fired often in the 1960 campaign.

It is bad politics in the United States in 1960 to be accused of religious bigotry. It would be worse politics to be guilty.

It is going to be good politics, on the other hand, to accuse someone else of religious bigotry, which is why Harry Truman has been eager to be first to make the accusation against the only politician of his time he ever was unable to intimidate with his "give-em-hell" technique.

The fact that Mr. Truman was so politically bigoted that he tried to hurt Kennedy by staying away from the Democratic convention is still remembered by the rest of us.

A bigot can be obstinately devoted to his political party, his opinion, or his belief, as well as to his church. Many bigoted Americans are prone to cast the aspersions of bigotry on others, without understanding it.

We are sure that former President Truman is not one of them. He knows what bigotry is as well as he knows that neither Vice President Nixon nor Sen. Kennedy can be held responsible for religious bigotry in the 1960 campaign.

We Worry Too Much About the Reds

The not unexpected news that the Soviet Union's globe-trotting chairman will show up in New York City for the United Nations General Assembly has caused more excitement than the approach of the "red coats" in Paul Revere's time.

We Americans worry too much about the Khrushchevs, Molotovs, Malenkovs, Kaganovichs and Stalins and what they will do next?

These people and their stooges and hirelings are so preoccupied with their worries about the United States and its people that it seems foolish to be equally worried about them. They spend all their time figuring out how to overtake the United States and are always fooling themselves into thinking the American people will stand still while their rivals are trying to catch up. Even some Americans have begun to think this way.

They are suggesting that America should be more like Russia in order to keep Russians from being more like Americans. We don't know what psychologists call this, but in the yphorisms that take the place of psychology among most of us it's spoken of as "fighting fire with fire," also as "joining the unprintable so-and-so if you don't think you can the Russians, provided we haven't lost the knack of working. That's admittedly a question mark that hovers over the United States, but the question hasn't yet been answered negatively.

With so many Americans determined that it shall be answered positively the prospects of U.S. survival are good.

They would be better, though, if something could be done about this country's unhealthy preoccupation with every decision, move, grunt and gesture from the Kremlin.

There is a psychopathic fascination about Communism. In the witch-hunting era after World War I, it used to be said that Americans looked for bearded Communists under their beds every night.

But in the most hysterical days of the post-World War I witch-hunting, there wasn't the unhealthy preoccupation with Communism that there is now.

To be sure, the Soviet Union then was only an experiment and now it is a major power. But the United States now is a major power, too, and it has learned in a generation of experience that no nation ever made a voluntary decision to adopt the Communist credo of dictatorship and policeman-worship.

We must keep our eye on the Reds. So Khrushchev is coming to the United Nations . . . so what? every day.

Everybody Lives and Learns

In recent years, when Michael J. Quill has tried to tie up New York City's rail and wheel transportation, he hasn't had much luck.

The same thing that has been causing transportation companies and commissions to mourn declining revenues has been hurting Quill and the Transport Workers Union.

It will hurt him and his union in the shutdown they have caused on the sprawling Pennsylvania Railroad system. To be sure, the shutdown also will hurt the railroad's customers and the railroad, itself, despite the insurance it carries against losses caused by union tactics. But the great change that has come over public transportation is the development of private transportation for passengers and commercial truck transportation for industry and commerce. It hurts the transportation union's prospects of maintaining paralyzing strikes.

The Pennsy tieup, larger and more widespread than anything Quill has tried before, will be no different in kind from his tieups of New York City transportation. People will be inconvenienced. But they will not be paralyzed in their goings and comings.

Today, there is an alternative to trains that run on tracks and even to buses and trucks that run on highways. It is a fearful to contemplate what might happen if a James R. Hoffa stopped all heavy truck transportation, or if a Michael J. Quill took over enough rail unions to tie up all train movements.

But no one has the United States by the throat any more. There always is some way to avert the paralysis that is the ultimate threat of every large-scale work stoppage. Even the Steelworkers learned last summer that the longest strike they ever maintained could not cripple the country, although it left a savage dent in the steel industry and in the future earning power of its employees.

A full house beats a pair any time in a really happy home.

Can the Congolese Have Revolution?

The ticklish issue of revolution in the Congo Republic will have to be settled in the United Nations, among other places. But long before there was a United Nations to regularize international behavior, the right of revolution was ticklish.

Did the United States have a right to revolt first against England and then to indulge in a revolt that pitted brother against brother?

Did the French have a right to go to war with one another over the terms of their political existence?

Did the revolutionists and counter-revolutionists of Spain have a right to do what they did?

Had there been a United Nations, would it have intervened in Mexico? Would it have intervened in Cuba when the insurrectionists arose against Spain?

What would have been its obligation in China when Chiang Kai-shek was involved in revolutionary activity? And in Latin America when revolutions were carving out national boundaries and undermining previously established orders?

What is involved in the long view of this matter is whether the new Republic of Congo and other emerging states in the 20th century, can be expected to establish themselves in a more orderly manner—and with less outside interference—than the states that formerly paid the price of revolution for their ultimate stability.

Everything about the Congolese since their chaotic beginning two months ago as a new nation has been discouraging, as far as their ability to maintain order is concerned. But in the long view of nationalist beginnings, events in the Congo have been no more discouraging than the experiences of new nations favorable omens of success.

Interference in revolutions by interested third and fourth parties is not new, either. The only thing new is the tentative right of the United Nations to try to avert armed violence when it has been requested by the proper authorities.

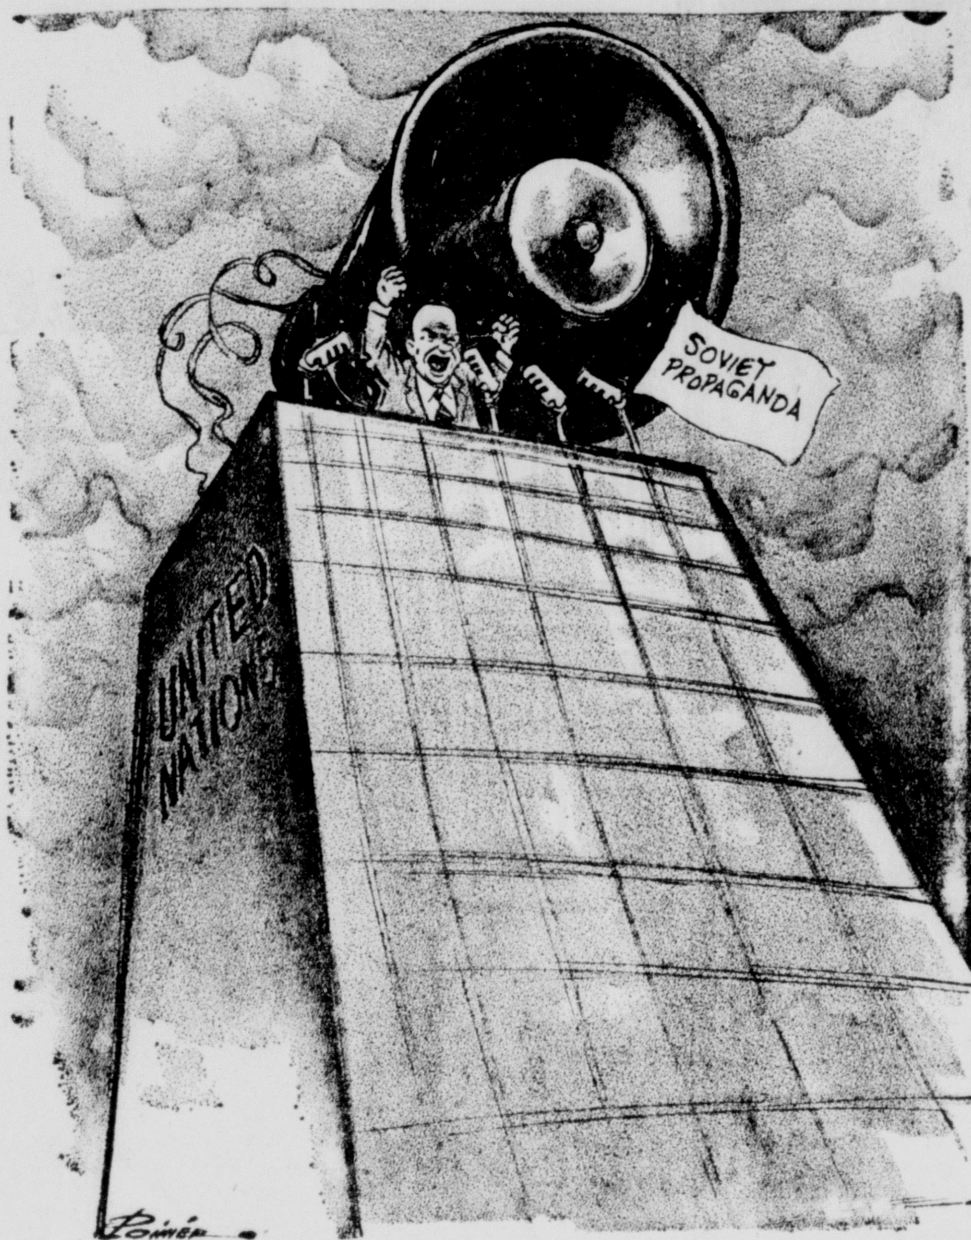

Even the United Nations is not as new as it would seem to be if there had not been drawn up and signed in September 1815 the Holy Alliance, which was a declaration of their relations with their subjects and with one another.

The Chamber Program

The Salem Chamber of Commerce has been without an executive secretary since early last April but, as the result of an accelerated program approved by the Chamber membership this week, a new executive is expected to be hired within the next few weeks.

Chamber officers fortunately have been able to "double in brass" since former Secretary Ron Leigh moved to Gary, Ind. However, the absence of aggressive leadership offered by a trained Chamber executive has been felt. Soon the vacuum will be filled and an aggressive program launched to benefit not only the some 300 members of the Chamber but the city as a whole.

International K-Rations

Customers Decide

By RAYMOND MOLEY

Two or three years ago, I wrote a piece protesting against the policy of automobile manufacturers which, by annual changes in styling, tried to induce customers to buy new cars every two or three years.

I said that it was not fair to a customer to sell him a car and in a few months tell him that his purchase was practically obsolete. This is what might be called "planned obsolescence."

I brought upon myself a shower of criticism from economists and financial writers. They said I failed to understand the American economy, which by great waste stimulated great production and a higher national product.

What, they said, would happen to the steel people if everybody insisted upon driving an automobile five or six years?

Indeed, I once heard the head of one of the great automobile companies tell an audience that if everybody decided to keep his automobile more than two years, his company would have to go out of business.

THE IMPLICATION in his remark was that somehow the American public owed his company a living. My thought, as he said what he did, was that he would learn that when it came to a choice of values, the American people would not care a hoot whether his company lived or not.

But now there is authority for my complaint by the head of a company that has certainly caught public favor and has forced recognition and imitation by the monster corporations with which it competes.

Mr. George Romney of American Motors said not long ago that it is time for American automobile companies to have more respect for their customers and to allow them to make their own decisions.

He said that so far as his company's compact model is concerned, it would be changed only

President's Patience

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Ike Ignores Personal Feelings In Peace Quest

Patience is often the very essence of statesmanship. President Eisenhower's simple and direct statement that he would negotiate for the peace of the world with any leader, even Nikita Khrushchev, provided there are certain "conditions fulfilled," is an example of an impersonal action which brushes aside any form of personal sensitiveness.

The President was asked at his press conference on last Wednesday whether he might better have taken a "tougher" line in his dealings with the Soviet premier in view of the latter's recent behavior. But Mr. Eisenhower quickly brushed aside the "getting tough" idea as of lesser importance than standing up for what is right in world policy.

Here are his words:

"I don't see anything that would be tough about refusing to see a man as long as there was any possible chance of his agreeing to one of the main efforts we are making toward disarmament. . . .

"We are talking about everything we can do to bring peace to the world—that's what we are trying to do. Now, toughness comes in standing in front of a man and telling him what you will do and you won't do.

"Our country is peaceable. We want peace. Is it tough just to say we won't even talk peace? That seems to me to be silly.

"Now, I don't care who says it, you have got to explore every avenue there is, and you've got to work on it day and night and think about it day and night.

"And I am not concerned about any criticism of my past actions. I have worked for what I thought was for the good of the United States and the peace of the world and I will continue to do so."

WHEN ASKED whether, in attending the United Nations General Assembly later this month, the President would talk with Khrushchev, Mr. Eisenhower replied:

"There would have to be some conditions fulfilled before that could happen."

Obviously Mr. Eisenhower isn't planning to start any impromptu "summit" meetings on his own, and if any real conferences are to take place on matters of substance, the Soviet premier will have to indicate this in advance.

Then arrangements would have to be made for the presence of the representatives of Great Britain and France.

The President is apparently going back to the position he used to take about "summit" conferences—namely, that there has to be an indication as to a possible area of agreement before it is worth while holding any such meetings.

Mr. Eisenhower is determined that he will not be a part of any propaganda demonstrations at the United Nations meeting or anywhere else. He puts it this way:

"We must respect the United Nations. We must believe in the United Nations or the case for relieving some of the burdens that mankind is now carrying, for removing some of the worries and the fears that plague men's minds and hearts, will never be achieved.

"Therefore, I do not intend to debate the United Nations by being a party to a battle of invective and propaganda."

MR. EISENHOWER has thus opened the way for a peace move by the Soviet premier if that is really the latter's objective in coming to New York. But if it's just a propaganda stunt, he will not have the aid of America's President.

It is clear that the United States government wants the whole world to know it is standing firmly behind the United Nations in its effort to achieve peace.

It was opportune, therefore, for the President to call attention to what appears to be a "unilateral" action by the Soviet Union in the Congo.

Here, in the President's own words, is a scathing denunciation of Soviet behavior in taking sides against U.N. activity in the former Belgian territory:

"The United States deplores the unilateral action of the Soviet Union in supplying aircraft and other equipment for military purposes to the Congo, thereby aggravating an already serious situation which finds Africans killing other Africans.

"If these planes are flown by Soviet military personnel, this would be contrary to the principles so far applied regarding use in the Congo of military contingents from the larger powers.

"As far as I know, these rules have previously been upheld by the Soviet Union itself. Therefore, it would be doubly serious if such participation by military units were part of an operation in the civil war which has recently taken on very ugly overtones."

This is as much a warning to a criticism of the Soviets. It tells the world that the Soviet Union is again committing treason against the U.N., as it did in 1950 when it supplied arms and munitions to Red China and the North Korean government to be used against the United Nations, which had sent its military forces into Korea to carry out a formal resolution duly adopted by the Security Council.

Some day many governments of the world will indicate their inclination to continue in an organization whose rules make it apparently incapable of expelling from its membership a government that violates every principle and purpose of the charter itself.

Recession-Time Again?

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Business spokesmen differ as to whether a recession is under way or in the offing or unlikely. But many executives appear to be taking the same measures now they would if an actual one were here.

They are cutting inventories to a minimum. They are holding up new orders. They are trimming payrolls. They are giving price concessions to hold customers. They are clipping overhead costs at every opportunity.

Slipping sales volume has inspired some of the belt tightening. But in many cases the spur has come from dropping profit margins. Rising operating costs have turned record sales into smaller net income. And management is going after those higher costs.

The slowdown in ordering and the trend to over inventories has put a crimp in the outgoing of several basic industries—one of the few signs so far that anyone could point to as foretelling a recession.

Some of the cost cutting is hailed as trimming away overhead fat that crept onto corporate muscles during the lush days that followed the 1957-58 recession and again during the rebound from the steel strike. And some cost cutting is long range, aimed at installing more efficient machinery in more economical plants.

But some economists warn that hasty cost cutting can cause more trouble for a company than it cures.

For example, care has to be taken in laying off workers. You may lose a skilled man altogether, one you would sorely miss later.

And you would lose the cost of training a man and have to start all over when you rehire. Too, layoffs or salary trimming can hurt morale and sometimes lead to a bigger loss in the long run.

A favorite cost-cutting device in slow times is to drop less profitable market areas and customers who add little to your total earnings. This often pays off in higher profits. But here care must be taken. There is the loss of the investment in building up the potential market and also the question of whether it might later turn into a very profitable one.

Many business managements are weighing these procedures. As profit margins drop, corporate accountants study salesmen's expense accounts very closely. Some firms are buying tourist tickets on planes instead of first-class tickets.

Purchasing agents are under pressure to get the lowest possible price for needed materials—but here the warning is against the risk of lower grades and untried materials that could cut product quality and hence torpedo sales.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerald L. Parker Jr.

Hrovatic-Parker Nuptials Are Held In Phillips Church

Miss Kathryn Joyce Hrovatic and Jerald Lynn Parker Jr. spoke their marriage vows Sunday afternoon in a single ring ceremony performed in the Phillips Christian Church.

Gene Marvin officiated at the service which united in marriage the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Hrovatic of RD 3, Salem and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerald L. Parker Sr. of East Palestine.

The altar setting featured a white archway, banked with scheflera ivy and vases of white gladioli and mums.

Miss Trina Loria sang "The Wedding Prayer," "The Ring," and "I Love Thee." She was accompanied by Mrs. Floyd Craig.

The bride designed her floor-length gown of white nylon embroidered organza over taffeta, styled with a scalloped neckline and hemline and short sleeves. A pearl and rhinestone tiara held her fingertip veil of French illusion. She carried a white Bible topped with white mums and stephanotis. She was given in marriage by her parents.

Taffeta frocks were worn by the bride's attendants. The maid of honor, Miss Linda Hrovatic, chose a rose-colored gown, while the bridesmaids, Misses Kathryn Karpofel and Mary Callahan wore coral-colored gowns. They wore matching taffeta Dior bow headbands, and carried arm bouquets of gladioli.

The flower girl was Dora Lee Whitacre. She wore a pale pink taffeta dress with a matching net headband and carried an arm arrangement of gladioli.

Ronald Sheely was Mr. Parker's best man. Rudy Hrovatic and Ronald Parker were ushers.

Pink carnation corsages complemented the ensembles worn by the mothers of the couple. Mrs. Hrovatic wore a navy bengaline dress with navy and pink accessories and Mrs. Parker chose a beige nylon dress with beige and brown accessories.

One hundred guests attended the reception in Fellowship Hall. A four-tiered wedding cake centered the bride's table. The hostesses were Miss Bonnie Parker, Miss Sandy Leibhart, Mrs. Kay Parker, Mrs. Conrad Whitacre and Mrs. Olive Ewing.

Miss Barbara Bricker registered the guests from Salem, East Palestine, New Waterford, Columbiana, New Springfield, Lisbon and Chicago, Ill.

A 1960 graduate of Salem High School, the bride is employed by the G. C. Murphy Co. The bridegroom attended East Palestine High School and is employed as a welder.

Niagara Falls and Cook's Forest was the couple's honeymoon destination. For traveling, the bride wore a beige wool suit with matching accessories and the corsage from her wedding bouquet. They will reside on Beard Road, RD 1, New Springfield.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts at the rehearsal party Friday evening at the church.

Methodist Women's Society Observes 20th Anniversary

Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church celebrated its 20th anniversary Wednesday evening at the church.

Mrs. Robert Stadler registered the 65 members and guests. Lapel ribbons were worn by all charter members in attendance.

President, Mrs. Homer Taylor, conducted the business meeting. Mrs. David Gardner introduced the program which was a glimpse of the past, present, plus contemplation for the future.

For the opening meditation, Mrs. William Keck read the words of the hymn, "O Word of God Ineffable," with Mrs. Floyd Craig providing a musical background.

Mrs. Harry Loria was narrator for the evening, and led the group in reflection and meditation as she passed to the scene members of the past and present. Miss Eleanor McMurray brought an account of the Methodist women in the days when they were known as the Ladies Aid and Home Missionary Service. The Creed then, as now, is "helpfulness."

Mrs. Delmar Smith followed with the story of the birth of the WSCS, telling of its purpose and hopes for filling the needs of thousands of women.

Mrs. Frank Stoudt, the first society president, called forth the 34 charter members and read the charge as she had done 20 years ago. They were each given miniature Bible folders containing several verses of scripture.

A demonstration of the current work being done in the Society was presented by Mrs. Willis Hole.

Mrs. Ernest Heston, Mrs. A. W. Kilman and Mrs. Harry Milhoan. Each lit a candle as a symbol of the height, breadth, length and depth of service.

As the leader in the present, Mrs. Taylor called to mind four concerns of this quadrennium, "faith that compels us," "factors that confront us," "frontiers that call us," and "programs that unite us."

She then honored the past presidents and presented a meditation booklet to those in attendance. They were Mrs. Frank Stoudt, Mrs. Loria, Mrs. O. A. Naragon, Mrs. Donald Harvey and Mrs. William Keck Recognition was also given to Mrs. Smith who had served in this capacity in another Society.

Bringing evidence of recent service were Misses Gyll Floding and Pat Sweitzer who attended the Girls School of Missions recently.

Miss Elaine Cavanaugh described the work being done by the Wesley Foundation of Kent. As one of the 500 weekly participants in the program, she gave high praise to its efforts and leaders, the Rev. and Mrs. Joe Brown Love. The program includes all areas of recreation and guidance, with support from the Society.

Mrs. Loria closed the program with prayer. Refreshments were served by the Josephine Laskey Group in Fellowship Hall. The buffet table was lace covered and centered with a birthday cake, decorated in green and yellow.

All lines of work were represented in imaginative arrangements on the tables throughout the room.

Graduated As Nurse

Miss Marilyn J. Kloos

Miss Marilyn Jeannine Kloos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kloos of 210 W. 5th St., was graduated from St. Luke's School of Nursing in Cleveland Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Kloos and daughter, Dawn, attended the exercises held in the Church of Our Saviour in Cleveland Heights.

FAMOUS RAINBOW BRIDGE, close to Niagara falls, is going to have a "twin." The Niagara Falls Bridge commission has completed plans for a new international bridge across the lower Niagara river, between Lewiston, N. Y., and Queenston, Ontario, at an estimated cost of $12,500,000.

This new bridge will closely resemble famed Rainbow bridge, which was opened in 1941. The new bridge will replace the last of the 36-mile river's historic suspension bridges. It will be approximately one-half mile upstream from the present span and nearly seven miles downstream from Horseshoe falls. The new span will have a ringside view of the Niagara Project hydro-electric generator. Completion of the new bridge has been set for May 30, 1962. Arrival at this point, where blueprints are about to be transformed into steel, represents more than five years of planning.

Salem Gridders Open With 7-0 Victory Over Akron Hoban

John DeFavero Races 11 Yards In First Quarter for Only Score Quaker Backfield Comes to Life; Looks Good on Offense, Defense

By DICK BRAUTIGAM

They nearly scared him to death but the Salem High Quakers made Blaine Morton's debut as head football coach here a successful one by squeezing out a hard-fought 7-0 victory over a battling Akron Hoban eleven Friday night at Reilly Stadium.

"We didn't look that good in practice," confided the happy coach who up until last night has had few opportunities to rejoice over the performances of his charges since practice opened on Aug. 19.

Most impressive last night was the Quaker defense which held Hoban to just 83 yards on the ground and 24 through the air. The two deep men, Gary Devan and John DeFavero did an outstanding job defending against Hoban's vaunted passing attack.

Quarterback Marty Lappin of Hoban was able to complete only four of 12 passes. He was a cool customer for a junior, but on several occasions, a hard charging Salem line forced him to get rid of the ball before he was ready.

Don Davidson, Duane McClaskey, Jim Schuster, Bob Elsner, Butch Crawford and Fred Harshman were particularly effective in the defensive line.

ONE HARD TACKLE by Schuster near midfield jarred the ball out of halfback John Lepkowski's arms and the always alert Harshman pounced on the pigskin for Salem. Crawford also recovered a Hoban fumble, this one in the fourth quarter on Salem's 44 yard line.

Elsner, who is one of the most improved men on the squad since last season, led the Quakers in the number of tackles last night with six. He also was credited with two assists.

The Quaker defense was expected to be adequate but there has been much concern about the team's ability to move the ball. However, the offense wasted no time in getting rolling last night.

SALEM TOOK the opening kickoff and marched straight down the field for 69 yards in 15 plays to score the only touchdown of the game. DeFavero wound up with the ball after a good fake by Devan and the 155-pound senior halfback carried the mail around his own left end for the final 11 yards.

Rick Sulea split the uprights with his extra point try and Salem had its 7-0 lead with 4:06 remaining in the first quarter.

DeFavero accounted for 35 of the 69 yards in the touchdown drive.

"It was that first quarter that killed us," Hoban Coach Bob Zupke commented in the dressing room after the game. "We changed our defense but it was too late," the dejected coach remarked.

After Salem scored, Hoban pulled in their defense to stop the Quakers' running game. Neither team really threatened after Salem broke the scoring ice. Salem got the ball to the Hoban 20 yard line in the second quarter but lost it on downs.

HOBAN CAME OUT in the second half and drove to the Salem 20-yard line but could move no farther as three straight passes fell incomplete.

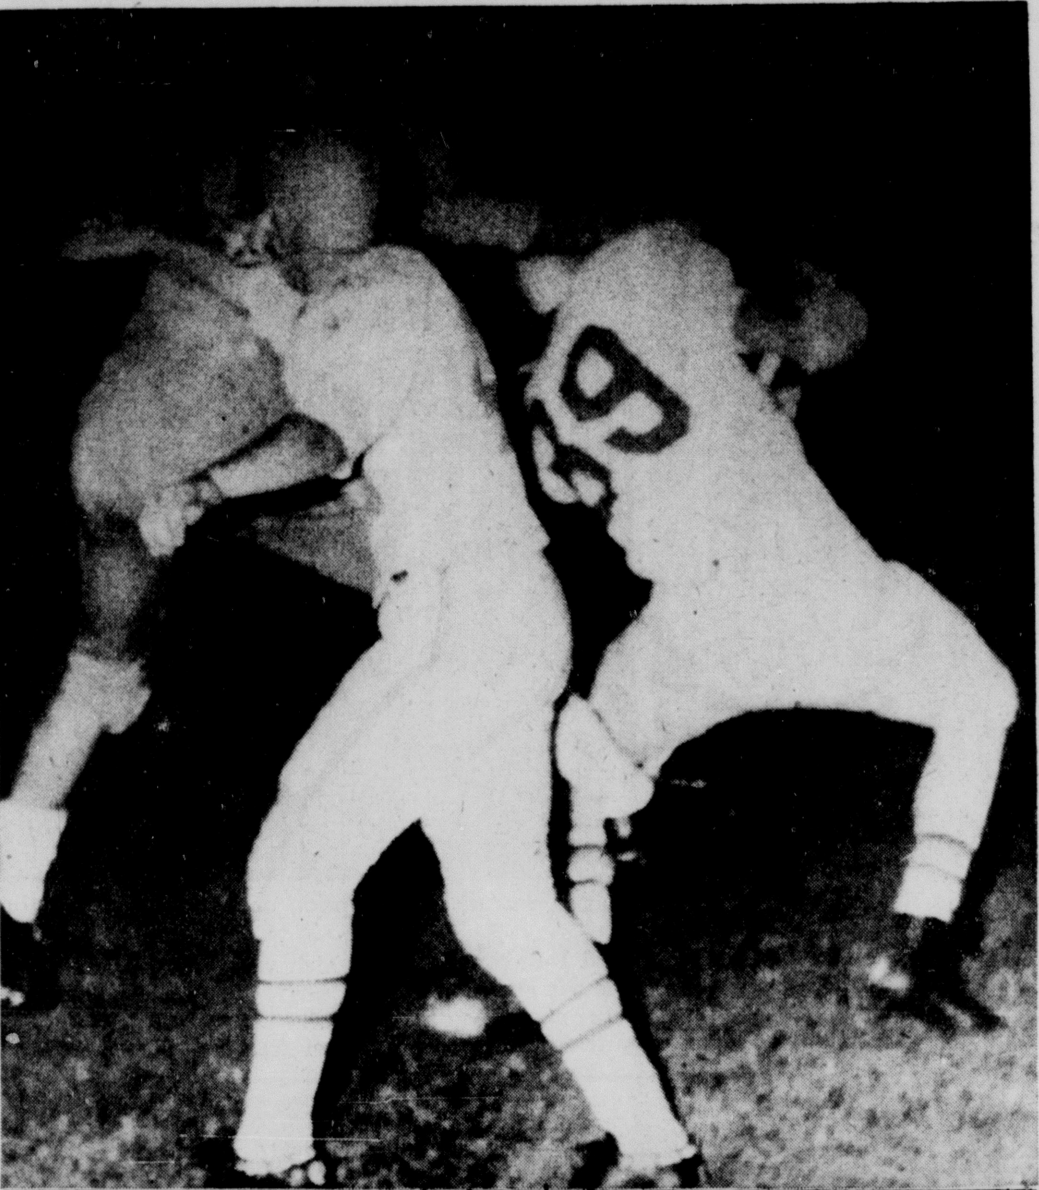

Salem had the ball on Hoban's 18 yard line when the game ended. Davidson took the Quakers out of danger when he intercepted a Lappin pass at midfield and returned it to the Hoban 33 with only 1:09 left in the game.

Salem kept its attack on the ground throughout most of the fray although it looked like the Quakers might have been able to pass against the Knights, especially after they pulled their defense in to stop the running game. Devan completed two of five passes for 14 yards.

Ours Tallies 4 TDs as Wellsville Jars Lisbon

Quarterback Roger Ours was the feature performer Friday night as the Wellsville Tigers battered an invading Lisbon Blue Devil squad 40-14.

The versatile quarterback tallied four of the winners' five touchdowns on runs, one that covered 34 yards. In addition Ours ran the ball for two extra points and passed to teammates for six other markers.

The Tigers tallied in every period. The Blue Devils scored their two touchdowns in the second and third frames.

Ours made the first six points of the game when he ran six yards 'to paydirt' in the initial period. Halfback Dick Brown ran the extra points.

In the next stanza, Ours five yards over right tackle for another TD, and chalked up the extra markers by passing to end Bob Kiggins.

Continuing to be irksome for the Blue Devils, Ours struck again in the third period on a quarterback sneak from one yard out. He threw to halfback Doug Thomas for the additional points.

In the next frame, Thomas ran through center for two yards to paydirt, and Ours ran the extra markers.

The sharp quarterback skirted left end for 34 yards to the goal line shortly afterward and tossed to Kiggins for the additional markers to wind up the Tiger scoring.

Left halfback Bill Bowling tallied Lisbon's first touchdown from three yards out in the second period, but was smeared in his attempt to run the extra points.

In the third, fullback Paul Fry went six yards to paydirt, and Bowling added the additional two points on a run.

The Blue Devils will host Friday night to Youngstown Cardinal Mooney.

Wellsville will invade Freedom, Pa., next Saturday.

coach Frank Filchock explained afterward.

Mingo, a veteran of Marine service football in California, had been an assistant coach at his alma mater, South High in Akron, Ohio. Headed to the Baltimore Colts, Mingo was lured by a letter from the Broncos encouraging him to join the new AFL venture.

Mingo eluded one desperate clutching defender after another on his stirring runback of a Tommy Greene punt.

"We've got no complaints or alibis," Boston coach Lou Saban said. "That one run beat us, it was the difference. And our boys had shots at him."

Newton Falls Ripped 30-8 By Minerva

The Minerva Lions, touted as one of the grid teams to watch in the Tri-County League this season, opened its season Friday with a resounding 30-8 defeat of Newton Falls on the winners' field.

The victors tallied two touchdowns in the initial period and added one in each of the last two quarters.

The losers scored their lone marker in the second frame.

The Lions broke the scoring ice early in the game when right halfback Willie Bingham scampered 53 yards to paydirt on a punt return with only two and one half minutes gone in the first period. Fullback John Obney added two points on a run.

A six-yard pass from quarterback Gary Elliott to end Dave Finebrock accounted for the Lions' other score in the frame. Bingham carried the ball across for the additional two points.

In the third stanza, Elliott crossed the goal from a yard out on a quarterback sneak, and Obney ran for the extra points.

Left halfback Gary Nigro plunged one yard off tackle in the last stanza to wrap up the winners' scoring.

Left halfback Rick Nemet went 10 yards off tackle to tally Newton Falls' touchdown. Right halfback Ed Prusky scampered over for the two extra points.

Minerva's next contest will be next Friday when it plays host to Sandy Valley.

Newton Falls will invade Sebring the same night.

Favorite Boston Edged by Denver

By BOB HOOBING
Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP) — Gene Mingo, first of the American Football League's star performers, brought victory to underdog Denver because a teammate was hurt.

The Broncos opened the regular AFL season Friday night by edging 16-point favorite Boston 13-10. Mingo, a 190 pounder who never played college ball, decided the contest on a great 79 yard punt return for a touchdown in the third period.

"Gene wouldn't have been in the regular offensive backfield but Bob McNamara was injured in the first period," smiling Denver

14th Win In Row for Tigers Massillon Tramples East Liverpool 42-0

The Massillon Tigers had no trouble Friday night in handing a 42-0 whipping to the East Liverpool Potters.

The defending state champions scored two touchdowns in the initial period and added three in the second to hold a 36-0 lead at the intermission. The Tigers, coached by Leo Strang, made their last TD in the final period.

It was the 14th victory in a row for Massillon. Over 11,500 persons saw the game.

The Tigers didn't show much in the way of an aerial attack, but their running was faultless.

Quarterback John Larson and halfback Bob Herring paced the victors.

Larson scored on runs of 15 and 68 yards and Herring raced to paydirt from 40 and 49 yards out. Halfback Martin Gugov sped 67 yards for another score, and Joe Smith wound up the scoring with a one-yard plunge in the final two minutes of play.

The only bright aspect for East Liverpool was Ken Cunningham's passing which was good for 112 yards. Cunningham completed 11 of 20 tosses.

Massillon had 13 first downs, compared to six for the invaders.

East Liverpool threatened to score only once, on the final play of the game.

McDonald Rolls Over Sebring 28-6

An invading McDonald football squad ran over a young, inexperienced Sebring team 28-6 Friday night on the Trojans' field.

The winners, who tallied all their touchdowns on runs, scored twice in the initial period and once in each of the last two frames.

Larry Cardiko, left halfback, was the big gun for the invaders, tallying the two markers in the first stanza.

Fullback Rolly Ryan scored for McDonald in the third period, and quarterback Ed Dolsak tallied the winners' final TD.

Fullback Dale Mingleddorf plunged over from two yards out in the first stanza to give the Trojans their only score.

Many of the Trojans' scoring efforts were thwarted by the play of Rick Vesey who was a standout on defense.

Sebring, which did not win a grid game last year, will be host next Friday to Newton Falls.

Columbiana will invade McDonald that night.

Unbeaten Clubs To Tangle Sunday In Softball Tourney

Only four teams will survive in the Salem Invitational Softball Tournament after a big weekend of action at Kelley field which has five games on tap today and six on Sunday.

Top seeded Cleveland Cleveland Auto Springs will meet the Massillon Rockets in the opener at 4 p.m. today. Other games are scheduled at 6, 7, 8 and 9 p.m.

Sunday's action will start at 2 p.m. when Shaffer Ford of Salem takes on the winner of one of Saturday's games. The big battle on Sunday will take place at 7 p.m. when the only two unbeaten teams in the double elimination tourney, Youngstown Skyway Tavern and Cuyahoga Falls McGowen-Reid, will tangle in the champions hip game of the winners bracket.

This fray will bring together Skyway's potent pitching staff of Chuck Biddle, Charlie Bushman and Mike Delaquilla against Jim Myers of McGowen-Reid who has not allowed an earned run in four tourney games. Myers already has one no-hitter to his credit here.

Quarterback Roger Ours was the feature performer Friday night as the Wellsville Tigers battered an invading Lisbon Blue Devil squad 40-14.

The versatile quarterback tallied four of the winners' five touchdowns on runs, one that covered 34 yards. In addition Ours ran the ball for two extra points and passed to teammates for six other markers.

The Tigers tallied in every period. The Blue Devils scored their two touchdowns in the second and third frames.

Ours made the first six points of the game when he ran six yards 'to paydirt' in the initial period. Halfback Dick Brown ran the extra points.

In the next stanza, Ours five yards over right tackle for another TD, and chalked up the extra markers by passing to end Bob Kiggins.

Continuing to be irksome for the Blue Devils, Ours struck again in the third period on a quarterback sneak from one yard out. He threw to halfback Doug Thomas for the additional points.

In the next frame, Thomas ran through center for two yards to paydirt, and Ours ran the extra markers.

The sharp quarterback skirted left end for 34 yards to the goal line shortly afterward and tossed to Kiggins for the additional markers to wind up the Tiger scoring.

Left halfback Bill Bowling tallied Lisbon's first touchdown from three yards out in the second period, but was smeared in his attempt to run the extra points.

In the third, fullback Paul Fry went six yards to paydirt, and Bowling added the additional two points on a run.

The Blue Devils will host Friday night to Youngstown Cardinal Mooney.

Wellsville will invade Freedom, Pa., next Saturday.

Pittsburgh Nips Chicago 4-3

Yanks Trip Tigers 4-1; Orioles Bow to Chisox 5-2; Tribe Loses

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

A year ago, Bill Stafford couldn't make the jump from Class A to Triple-A in the minors. But now the big right-hander has won three of four and has the New York Yankees within a half-game of the American League lead again.

Stafford, the only member of the staff to pitch a complete game in New York's last 14 starts, went all the way for the second time in a six-hit, 4-1 victory at Detroit that left the Yankees just one percentage point shy of first-place Baltimore.

The Orioles, who have won two more than New York, dropped a game behind in the "lost" column with a 5-2 defeat by Chicago's third place White Sox. The defending champs trail by 3½ games.

Washington continued a bid for its first finish in the first division since 1946 by belting fifth-place Cleveland 8-2. Kansas City beat Boston 3-2.

In the National League, sub shortstop Dick Schofield's two-run triple, gave Pittsburgh a 4-3 victory over Chicago's Cubs and retained the Pirates' six-game lead. Second-place St. Louis defeated Philadelphia 4-1 in a game held to five innings because of rain. Los Angeles dumped third place Milwaukee 5-3. San Francisco and Cincinnati split a doubleheader, with the Reds taking the nightcap 3-2 after a 4-2 Giant victory.

Stafford, beaten only by the Orioles since coming up from Richmond of the International League last month, blanked the Tigers on four hits until Norm Cash opened the eighth inning with his 17th homer. The 21-year-old rookie, who returned to Birmingham of the Class A Eastern League last season after a 1-8 record at Richmond, is in his fourth year of organized ball. He was 11-7 at Richmond this season.

The White Sox beat Orioles ace Chuck Estrada (16-9) with a second-inning run on successive doubles by Al Smith and Ted Kluszewski, after Minnie Minoso had singled home two runs in the first. Bob Shaw (13-12) was the winning pitcher, shutting out the Orioles on three hits until the eighth.

Two homers by Jim Lemon and another by Harmon Killebrew, scored the Senators' first seven runs as they beat Muecat Grant (9-8) for only the second time in 18 decisions. Lemon drove in five runs with his pair, which gave him a share of the AL home run lead with Maris at 37. Pedro Ramos (11-14) was the winner, blanking the Indians until Vic Power homered in the ninth.

Southpaw Bud Daley (14-14), who had lost five in a row and 10 of 11 since the All-Star break, beat Boston and reliever Chet Nichols (0-1) with a three-hitter.

Hurricane

Miami Beach authorities barred all but residents and those with legitimate business from visiting the area this morning. Water was two or three feet deep in some streets along the ocean and many pavements were littered with broken glass.

Donna's vicious slap at the Keys was in character. The mighty storm so far has taken 116 lives and done millions of dollars in property damage in its progress across the Atlantic.

Most of the dead were in Puerto Rico but Donna also claimed victims in the Leeward Islands.

Some weathermen think that in its infancy the hurricane also struck from the skies a French airliner which crashed in a driving wind and squall off the African Coast. That Aug. 29 disaster claimed 63 lives.

The reference to a touchy international situation was less apparent. It could have been to possible flights of some bombers and fighters across northwest Alaskan areas — not too far from Soviet territory.

Or the reference might have related to Canada, which took part in the sky operation. Canadian sovereignty, the contribution of the Royal Canadian Air Force, and the operation of U.S. Air Force planes over Canadian territory has been a controversial subject in Canada.
